Describe a career defining moment:

I believe there is at least one defining moment every day, you just have to keep your eyes and mind open.

How has Women of Scottsdale changed your life?

Women of Scottsdale is a wonderful organization comprised of many independent, strong, interesting and community oriented women. My introduction to this group has given me an outlet to form new business contacts as well as develop new friendships with like minded women.

How does Women of Scottsdale intertwine with you work life?

Women of Scottsdale gives me a forum to introduce myself and my business to other professional women in a relaxed and supportive network.

Did you have a mentor, if so who and how did they inspire you?

My mother taught me to believe in my dreams. My father exemplifies an amazing work ethic. Barbara Noble introduced me at 18 to a world I'd never known~ the theater, arts and sushi! Linda Herold is an inspiring woman that I continue to observe and learn from.

Best career advice?

1) Know what you don't know 2) Show up both mentally and physically 3) Listen to your intuition.

What accomplishment to date are you most proud of?

Balance between my career and family. I really try to be present in all of my roles~ mother, wife, daughter, sister, and career woman.

Life Motto:

I have this quote on a note card which I read every morning as I'm getting ready for work~ "The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams" - Eleanor Roosevelt
